Had an accident?

What to do if you have an accident

If your car is involved in an accident or you need to make a claim, please phone the claims team as soon as possible using the number below. If you are making a claim for the accident you will have access to professional teams who are ready to help you through this straightforward process, getting you back on the road quickly.

There are some things you need to know about accidents and what you should do and what you should try to avoid doing, in order to comply with the law and make your claim go smoothly.

Safety first!

The most important thing to do in the event of an accident is to make sure that you and your passengers are safe and to call an ambulance if anyone involved in the accident is injured. You should only take the action suggested below if it is safe to do so.

What the law says

When you need to stop

You must stop if you are involved in any incident:

- Involving injury to a person.
- Where certain animals have been killed or injured, except in your own vehicle or trailer.
For example – you must stop if you kill or injure dogs, horses, cattle, sheep and goats, but not cats or wildlife.
- If other vehicles or property are damaged.

Need to make a claim?

Giving your details

- If you own the vehicle, you must give the following information to anyone who has a good reason for asking (for example, the police or anyone else involved in the accident):
 - Your name and address.
 - The name and address of your insurer and your car insurance policy number.
- If you do not own the vehicle, you must give the owner's name and address and the registration number of the vehicle.
- If you do not have these details with you at the time, you need to supply them as soon as possible.

Reporting the accident to the police

- You must report an accident to the police within 24 hours if:
 - There is an injury.
 - You do not give your details to anyone at the scene.
- You will also need to present your Certificate of Motor Insurance at the police station within five days of the accident.

Helping with the claims process

Try not to apologise or admit fault

- It is natural to want to apologise for an accident if you feel it was your fault. However, it is really important that you don't do this, because you may not be legally liable for the accident and you may affect your insurer's ability to act on your behalf. It may also affect your no claims discount.

Collecting important information for your claim

To help speed up your claim, please try to collect details of the following:

- Full details of the other drivers, including their phone numbers, and the registration numbers of all vehicles involved.

This will allow your insurer to contact anybody else involved straight away. In addition, your no claims discount will not be affected if the accident was not your fault and your insurer manages to recover all money paid from the person who caused the accident (or their insurer).

- Injuries caused.
- Property damage.
- Witnesses (if there are any).
- Police officers and report reference numbers.
- Full details of what happened.

If it is possible (and won't endanger you or other road users), please take photos of the accident with a camera or mobile phone, as this can help to confirm certain accident details. Include pictures of the damage to both vehicles, any injuries and the general scene. If there is any dash-cam footage available your insurer may request a copy of this.

All the information you gather will help your insurer and legal representatives (if you have chosen Legal Expenses on your policy) to assist you in getting things sorted out as quickly and easily as possible.

Informing your insurer

- Call the claims team – using the number shown on page 3 of this policy booklet.
- If you need to contact your insurer during the claims process, you should call the phone number your insurer sends you and remember to have your claims reference number handy, as this will make it easier to get a quick update on your claim. Don't forget – If your car is taken away for assessment or repair, please remember to remove all your personal belongings from the car.

Recovering losses you are not insured for

Legal Expenses (optional cover)

Your insurer is not responsible for recovering losses you are not insured for, such as your policy excess. Full details of Legal Expenses insurance and how you make a claim can be found on pages 49-58 of this booklet.

Please refer to your Statement of Fact to see if you have selected this cover. If not, you can add this to your policy by calling the number below. Please note this will not cover any claims/incidents that have occurred prior to purchasing the cover.

This optional Legal Expenses cover is designed to help you if the accident was not your fault and:

- You have suffered an injury.
- You have incurred losses you are not insured for.
- You are seeking compensation for damage to your belongings.

How to make a claim

Start of the claims process

- 1 If your car is involved in an incident or you need to make a claim, please phone the claims team as soon as possible.
- 2 Please have your Certificate of Motor Insurance and details of the incident with you when you call. If you are at the scene of the accident when you call and do not have your Certificate of Motor Insurance with you, all you need to do is give your car registration number.

Settling your claim

In the event of damage to your car, fire or theft, your insurer will choose whether to repair the car or pay you a cash amount equal to the cost of the loss or damage. If the car cannot be driven because of damage that is covered under this policy, your insurer will arrange collection and take your car to the nearest approved repairer.

If the car is economically repairable

If your insurer decides to repair your car, you will be offered use of an approved repairer.

If you chose to use an approved repairer, you will benefit from the following repair service

Authorisation

You do not need to get any estimates and repairs can begin immediately after your insurer has authorised them.

Repairs

If damage to the car is covered and it can be repaired, your insurer will arrange for one of its approved repairers to contact you to arrange to collect the car.

As long as you own the car, workmanship by approved repairers has a lifetime guarantee.*

*Any repairs carried out by an approved repairer have a workmanship guarantee for as long as you own the car. Defective parts will be replaced without charge as long as they are covered by the part manufacturer's warranty.

This is subject to the vehicle being maintained in accordance with the manufacturer routine maintenance schedule (in the event of a claim against this guarantee we may ask for documentation / invoices as evidence of this). Failure of components (such as tyres, exhaust, brakes) or bodywork damage will not be covered if failure or deterioration is through normal usage. To help assist in maintenance of the car, the Repairer will be happy to discuss arrangements for an annual bodywork inspection.

Delivery

When the work is done, your repairer will contact you to arrange a convenient time to deliver the car back to you.

Message relay

If you call your insurer after an accident, they can arrange to pass messages to friends, family or colleagues to tell them you are safe and if you will be delayed.

This service applies to incidents in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and while the car is being transported between any of these countries.

Please note

- ! If the condition of the car is better after the repair than it was just before it was damaged, you may be asked to pay something towards the repair. This will be discussed with you before the repair is made.
- ! The repairer can use parts (including recycled parts) that compare in quality to those available from the manufacturer.

If you do not want to use one of the approved repairers, you will need to send your insurer an estimate for authorisation and they may need to inspect the car.

If the car is a total loss

If your car is very badly damaged or unsafe to drive and it is decided that it does not make financial sense to repair it, your car will be declared a “total loss” – many people call this a “write off”.

Once an engineer has inspected and assessed the market value of the car, your insurer will send you an offer of payment to cover the market value of the car. Any payment made will be after any policy excess has been deducted and any other payments from the list below have been made.

! Please note

The market value of your car provides you with sufficient funds to replace your car with one of a similar age, mileage and condition.

- If there is any outstanding loan on the car, your insurer may pay the finance company first.
- If the market value of your car is more than the amount you owe the finance company, your insurer will pay you the balance.
- If the market value of your car is less than the amount you owe the finance company, you may have to pay them the balance.
- If you have chosen to pay your premium by instalments, your insurer may subtract any outstanding premium owed to us from your total loss settlement.

What happens to the car?

When you accept an offer for “total loss”, then the car will belong to your insurer.

What happens if the car is up to one year old?

Your insurer will not pay more than the market value of the car unless all of the following apply:

- The loss or damage happens within 12 months of the cars first registration.
- You are its first and only registered keeper and you have owned the car (or it has been hired to you under a hire-purchase agreement) since it was first registered as new.

! Please note

If you buy a pre-registered car from a car dealership, then you will not be the first and only registered owner.

- The car was supplied as new in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands
- The cost of repair is estimated to be more than 60% of the cost of buying an identical new car (based on the UK list price) at the time of the loss or damage.

In these circumstances, you can choose to ask your insurer to replace your car with a new car of the same make, model and specification and to pay the cost of delivery, using the dealers usual delivery service.

Your insurer will only do this if:

- at the time of your claim the replacement vehicle is available within the United Kingdom, Isle of Man or the Channel Islands (delivery times may vary); and
- they have permission from the hire-

purchase company, if this is how you bought the car and you have not finished paying for it.

Overnight accommodation or onward transport

- If the car is not roadworthy after an accident, your insurer can arrange to get you and your passengers home or to your planned UK destination.
- Alternatively, they will reimburse you for transport costs incurred to get you and your passengers home or to your planned UK destination, up to £150 for each person (limit of £400 each claim).
- If you cannot complete your journey, your insurer will pay for overnight accommodation up to £50 for each person (£250 in total).

Keeping you on the road while your car is being repaired

For incidents in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands and while the car is being transported between any of these countries.

- If you are using an approved repairer, you will be offered a small courtesy car to drive whilst yours is being repaired.

Please note

The courtesy car may not be the same size as your own car. If you wish to have a larger car, you may be able to upgrade if you pay an additional sum to the approved repairer, but this is something you will need to agree with the repairer at the time.

- Once it has been decided that your car can be economically repaired by one of the approved repairers, you will be provided with the courtesy car:
 - If your own car cannot be driven, you will be provided with the courtesy car on the next working day. You will have this car for as long as the repairs to your own car take.

- If your own car is roadworthy and can still be legally driven, the courtesy car will be delivered when your car is collected for repairs.
- While you have the courtesy car, you will be liable to pay fines for any parking or driving offences, congestion charges and any additional costs for any non-payment of these charges.
- The approved repairer will ask you to provide credit or debit card details, which can be used to pay for these costs, if any are incurred.
- If your car is declared a total loss and written off, you will not be provided with a courtesy car.

Disposing of your car if it cannot be repaired

- If your car cannot be economically repaired or is a total loss, your insurer will offer you a settlement amount within one week of the date they receive the engineer's report.
- Once this amount is agreed, subject to satisfactory vehicle documents, payment will be made within one working day.
- You will be asked to send in all the original documents (for example, the vehicle registration document (V5C) and the current MOT certificate).
- Your insurer will arrange for an appointed salvage agent to collect your car to dispose of it for you.
- Please remember to remove all your personal belongings from the car before it is collected.

Please note

You may be able to get a refund on your car tax for any unused months.

- Death of (or injury to) any of your employees during the course of their work, even if the death or injury is caused by anyone insured by this policy.
- Loss of (or damage to):
 - Property owned by (or in the care of) the person who is claiming cover under this section.
 - A vehicle, trailer, trailer caravan or broken-down vehicle covered by this policy.

- Any amount over £20 million (excluding costs and expenses) for any one claim (or series of claims) arising from one event that causes loss of (or damage to) property, including any indirect loss or damage.
- Any amount over £5 million for all costs and expenses, for any one claim (or series of claims) arising from one event that causes loss of or damage to property.

Regardless of all of the exclusions under this section, your insurer will provide the minimum cover needed under compulsory motor insurance legislation.

Section H – Using your car abroad

What is insured

- You will be covered for your legal liability to others while you (or any driver covered by this policy) are using the car:
 - Within the European Union.
 - In any other country which has agreed to follow Article 8 of the EC Directive 2009/103/EC relating to Civil Liabilities arising from the use of motor vehicles.

Please note

You do currently need an International Motor Insurance Card (Green Card) for visits to these countries.

- You must contact us if you intend to take the car outside the European Union for any amount of time. You must also contact us if you intend on taking the car outside the Geographical Limits of the policy for more than 90 days in any period of insurance. You can call our Customer Services Team on 0345 165 0570.

What is not insured

- If your Certificate of Motor Insurance allows you to drive any other vehicle, that cover does not apply outside of the Geographical limits.
- Any damage caused to your car under 'Section A - Damage to your car' and 'Section C - Fire & Theft'.
- Any cover under 'Section E - Medical expenses'.

Section I – Replacement locks and keys

Section I does not apply to this policy.

Optional cover is available, please refer to page 39
and onwards for more information.

Section J – Your no claims discount

The table below shows what will happen to your no claim discount if you make a claim, including the difference protecting your no claim discount (NCD) makes. See Section K for further details about no claims discount protection.

NCD Years at the start of current period of insurance	NCD at next renewal without NCD protection (number of claims in current year)				NCD at next renewal with NCD protection (number of claims in last three years prior to renewal)

7	8	3	1	0	8	7	7	3
8	9	3	1	0	9	8	8	3
9+	9	3	1	0	9	9	9	3

- As long as a claim has not been made during the period of insurance immediately before your renewal, a discount will be included in your renewal premium.
- If a claim is made during the period of your insurance, at your next renewal the discount will be reduced or removed in line with your insurer's current scale (see table opposite) and you may also have to pay a higher excess and/or higher premium on your policy.

Important – About your no claims discount

You must provide us with written confirmation of your entitlement to the number of years discount you disclosed within 14 days of purchase. If we do not hear from you or receive your proof we will send notification that we will cancel your policy and you will be charged an administration fee. Please refer to your Terms of Business agreement for details of fees and charges that apply. If you make a claim following an accident with an uninsured driver, you will have your excess reimbursed and your no claims discount reinstated, provided that:

- Your insurer can establish that the accident is not your fault and the driver of the other vehicle is not insured.
- You give your insurer the other vehicle's make, model and valid registration number.
- If possible you should also supply the name and address of the person driving the other vehicle.

It will help your insurer to confirm who is at fault if you can supply the name and addresses of any independent witnesses, if available.

When you claim you may have to pay your excess and may also temporarily lose your no claims discount. If subsequently your insurer is satisfied that the accident was not your fault, they will repay your excess and we will reinstate your no claims discount and refund any premium which may be due to you.

Section K – No claims discount protection

- ! Please note – You will only have no claims discount protection on your policy if it is shown on your policy Statement of Fact.
- You will not lose any of your no claims discount as long as:
 - No more than two claims are made in the three-year period immediately before your renewal.
 - You have paid any additional premium requested to protect your no claims discount.
- After a second claim is made in any three-year period.
 - Your no claims discount will no longer be protected and any further claims will result in the loss of (or reduction to) your no claims discount.
- You may also have to pay a higher premium and/or policy excess if any claims are made.

Important information

Your car insurance policy

This contract of insurance (policy) is between you, us and your insurer. No one else has any rights under this policy or has the right to enforce any part of it under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

Under the terms of this insurance policy, your insurer will provide cover against accidental injury, loss or damage that happens during the period of insurance and within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, in return for you paying or agreeing to pay the premium.

This insurance policy is based on information you gave us when applying for this insurance via a price comparison site, on our website or during a telephone conversation (and which is summarised in your Statement of Fact) and any other information you provided.

It is an offence under the Road Traffic Act to make a false statement or withhold any requested information for the purposes of obtaining a Certificate of Motor Insurance.

Important notice – you are required by the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 to take care to supply accurate and complete answers to all the questions asked on a price comparison site, on our website or asked during a telephone conversation (or those declared on the Statement of Fact) and to make sure that all information supplied is true. Failure to supply accurate and complete information may mean that your policy is invalid and that it will not operate in the event of a claim.

Please check all your documents carefully to make sure that they give you the cover you want.

Words with special meanings

Throughout this car insurance policy, certain words and phrases have special meanings and these are explained below. Please note: The words used for optional sections of cover (starting on page 39) have their own special meanings.

Certificate of Motor Insurance

The proof of the motor insurance you need by law. The Certificate of Motor Insurance shows:

- What car is covered.
- Who is allowed to drive the car.
- What the car can be used for.

If your Certificate of Motor Insurance allows your car to be driven by any driver, your Statement of Fact will show any restrictions that apply.

Excess

The part of a claim you must pay. Sometimes more than one policy excess can apply. If this is the case, you will need to pay all of these.

Geographical limits

United Kingdom (England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland), the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man (and, if you are a permanent resident of Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland) and while the car is being transported between any of these countries.

Market value

The cost of replacing the car with one of a similar age, type, mileage and condition, immediately before the loss or damage happened.

Partner

Your husband, wife or civil partner, or person with whom you have a relationship with as if married and who is living at the same address as you. This does not include any business partners or associates unless you also have a relationship with them as described above.

Period of insurance

The length of time that the insurance policy applies for. This is shown in the Statement of Fact.

Statement of Fact

The latest Statement of Fact issued to you. This forms part of the insurance policy. It gives details of the period of insurance, the sections of the policy that apply, the premium you have to pay, the car which is insured and details of any excesses or endorsements. This also shows the information that you provided, including information given on your behalf and verbal information you gave prior to commencement of the policy.

Terrorism

Terrorism as defined in the Terrorism Act 2006 or any subsequent amendments or any act deemed by the Government or a UK Court of Law to be an act of terrorism.

The car

The motor vehicle shown as insured on your Statement of Fact and for which you have been issued a Certificate of Motor Insurance. The car's registration number will be shown on your latest Certificate of Motor Insurance. This also includes accessories and spare parts when they are with the car or locked in your own garage and, if your car is electric, this also includes your charging cables and the charger installed at your home.

Car insurance conditions

Claims

You should report any claim to your insurer as soon as possible. Contact details for your insurer can be found at the front of this policy booklet. You must send your insurer any letter, claim, writ or summons as soon as you receive it. You must also let them know straight away if you or your legal advisers know of any prosecution, inquest or fatal accident inquiry that might be covered under this policy. Unless you have your insurer's written permission, you (or any other person who claims under this policy), must not:

- Negotiate on any claim made against you.
- Admit fault.
- Make any payment, offer or promise of payment.

In dealing with any claim under the terms of this policy, your insurer may:

- Carry out the defence or settlement of any claim and choose the solicitor who will act for you in any legal action.
- Take any legal action in your name, or the name of any other person covered by this policy.

Anyone who makes a claim under this policy must give your insurer any reasonable information they ask for.

Right of recovery

If the law of any country says your insurer must make a payment that they would not otherwise have paid, you must repay this amount to your insurer.

Other insurance

If any incident that leads to a valid claim is covered under any other insurance policy, your insurer will only pay their share of the claim.

Reasonable precautions

Anyone covered by this policy must take all reasonable steps they can to protect the car (and anything in or attached to it), against loss or damage. This includes making sure that the car has all its windows, doors, roof openings, hood and boot closed and locked, and all keys or devices needed to lock the car are with you or the person authorised to use the car when no one is in it.

The car must be kept in good working order. Your insurer may examine the car at any time.

Keeping to the terms of the policy

Your insurer will only pay claims if:

- Any person claiming cover has met with all the terms of the policy, as far as they apply.
- The declaration and information given on a price comparison site, on our website or during a telephone conversation (or shown in the Statement of Fact), is complete and correct as far as you know.
- You or any driver named on your Statement of Fact informs the DVLA of health conditions, which require notification to the DVLA.

Protection against Fraud and Misrepresentation

Fraud and misrepresentation have an impact on us, your insurer and our customers, so we and your insurer take certain measures to prevent them.

Fraud

A person is committing fraud if they or anyone acting on their behalf knowingly:

- Make a fraudulent or false claim in full or in part:
 - by providing false information in order to influence your insurer to accept a claim;
 - by exaggerating the amount of the claim; or
 - by supplying false or invalid documents in support of a claim.

Misrepresentation

We and your insurer would class a deliberate or reckless misrepresentation as a person or anyone acting on their behalf knowingly, or without care:

- providing answers to questions which are dishonest, inaccurate or misleadingly incomplete, or
- misleading us or your insurer in any way for the purpose of obtaining insurance, or more favourable insurance terms, or a reduced premium.

How we and your insurer deal with fraud and misrepresentation to protect us, your insurer and our customers

If we or your insurer find that a deliberate or reckless misrepresentation has been committed we and your insurer will have the right to:

- Void your policy without refund (treat it as if it never existed) and refuse to pay any claim.
- Cancel all policies which you have with us and apply the relevant fee for each.

If we or your insurer find that any form of claims fraud has been committed we and your insurer will have the right to:

- Refuse to pay the whole of a claim if any part is in any way fraudulent, false or exaggerated.
- Recover any costs incurred including investigation and legal costs.
- Inform the police, which could result in prosecution.
- Inform other organisations as well as anti-fraud databases.

Changes you must tell us about

You must tell us about any of the changes listed on page 4 straight away. Failure to tell us or your insurer about these changes or any changes to the information detailed on your Statement of Fact or Certificate of Motor Insurance, could result in your policy being voided (as if the policy never existed) and your insurer may not pay your claim. Any changes made to your policy may result in a change to your premium and/or excess and there may be an administration charge. You can make changes to your policy online 24/7 at my.ageas.co.uk free of any administration charge.

Cancelling your policy

How you can cancel your policy

You can cancel your policy at any time. To do so please contact us by telephone or by writing to the following address:

0345 650 0345

Ageas
Deansleigh House
Deansleigh Road
Bournemouth
BH7 7DU

help@ageas.co.uk

If you cancel your policy you will choose whether this takes effect immediately or from a later date, but you cannot backdate the cancellation to an earlier date.

You will also be charged a fee when your policy is cancelled. For full details of all charges please refer to your Terms of Business Agreement.

How much money you get back or have to pay when you cancel your policy will depend on the reason for cancellation, how you pay for your policy, how long you've had it for and whether or not you've made a claim or may need to make a claim.

Cancelling within the first 14 days

If you cancel your policy within 14 days of the purchase date or the date at which you receive your documents (if this is later) then:

If your policy has not started we'll refund your full premium, plus Insurance Premium Tax (IPT) where applicable, minus the relevant administration fee for cancellation.

If your policy has started, as long as you've not made a claim and nothing has happened which could lead to a claim, we'll refund you for the time left on the policy (plus IPT where applicable). We'll do this by working out the cost of your insurance per day, and then refund you for the days that you haven't yet used, minus the relevant administration fee for cancellation.

If you've made a claim or something has happened which could lead to a claim, no refund will be paid. If you pay for your insurance on a monthly basis, we'll also ask you to pay the remainder of the year's premiums.

Cancelling after the first 14 days

After the initial 14 days, as long as you've not made a claim and nothing has happened which could lead to a claim, we'll refund you for the time left on the policy (plus IPT where applicable). We'll do this by working out the cost of your insurance per day, and then refund you for the days that you haven't yet used, minus the relevant fee.

If you've had a claim during the cover period, or something has happened which might lead you to make a claim, then you won't receive any refund. If you pay for your insurance on a monthly basis, we'll also ask you to pay the remainder of the year's premiums.

It's important to be aware that your policy won't be cancelled if you simply stop your direct debit.

Our right to cancel or void your policy

We and your insurer have the right to cancel this policy at any time by giving you 7 days' notice in writing. We'll tell you the reason why. Reasons why we may decide to cancel your policy include, but won't be limited to:

- We're unable to take a payment from your nominated account due to insufficient funds or a Direct Debit instruction being cancelled.
- You made a mistake when providing us with the information shown on your Statement of Fact or this information has changed and we are no longer willing to cover you or you are refusing to pay the correct premium.
- You won't give us information that we ask for.
- You or someone representing you is abusive to our staff or anyone acting on our behalf.

If we cancel your policy, we will use the same method to calculate any refund and deduct the same fees as if you cancelled the policy yourself, however, there are some exceptions.

If you have withheld or given us wrong information because you didn't take care when communicating with us, we can decide to void your policy instead of cancelling it. Wherever we use the term void, we mean we'll treat your policy as though it had never existed. In these circumstances you would receive a full refund but we wouldn't have to pay any existing claims.

If we discover that you deliberately withheld or gave wrong information, or acted recklessly when communicating with us, we will void your policy and you would not receive a refund. We would also refuse to pay any claims and make you repay any money we have paid out for previous claims.

We also reserve the right not to invite you to renew your policy and/or to cancel any other policies you have with us and apply the relevant fee to each.

If we cancel or void your policy because of fraud

it's really important that you're honest with us at all times. If we find that you or anyone acting on your behalf has committed fraud, your policy will be immediately cancelled or we will declare it void from the start.

If we cancel or void your policy because of fraud, you will not receive a refund and we will refuse to pay any fraudulent claims. Similarly, we will make you repay any money we've paid out for any claims since the date the fraud first occurred, even if they were not fraudulent.

To be clear, when we make you repay any money paid out for claims, we mean all claim payments including any investigation fees or legal costs.

Please be aware that all references to 'us', 'we' and 'our' in the following section (Your information and what we do with it) only, refer to both Ageas and your insurer Ageas Insurance Limited.

Policy Exclusions

Your car insurance policy does not cover you for the following and claims will not be paid in these circumstances. However, your insurer will provide the minimum cover needed under compulsory motor insurance legislation.

1 Your insurer will not pay any claims arising directly or indirectly from the following:

- The car being driven by, or being in the charge of someone who is not described in your certificate of motor insurance as entitled to drive, other than while the car is with a member of the motor trade for servicing or repair.
- The car being driven, with your permission, by anyone who you know does not hold a driving licence or is disqualified from driving. However your insurer will still give cover if the person used to hold a licence and is allowed to hold one by law.
- The car being driven by someone who does not meet all the conditions of their driving licence. An example of this would be a provisional licence holder driving without appropriate supervision as required by law.
- The car being used for a purpose that is not shown as covered in your certificate of motor insurance, other than while the car is with a member of the motor trade for servicing or repair. An example of this would be using a car for business purposes when you have not insured it for this purpose.
- The car being used for hiring, competitions, rallies or trials or racing formally or informally against another motorist.

- The car being used on a motor racing track, de-restricted toll road, airfield, at an offroad event or at The Nurburgring.

- The car being used for criminal purposes or deliberately used to threaten to cause harm, loss or damage. An example of this would be 'road rage'.

- The car being driven by someone named in the Certificate of Motor Insurance if the driver is convicted of driving whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Where we are required to make payments in these circumstances, we can recover these from you

2 If you receive any payment for giving people lifts in the car, the policy is not valid if:

- the car is made or altered to carry more than eight people including the driver; or
- you are carrying the passengers as part of a business of carrying passengers; or
- you are making a profit from the payments you receive.

3 Claims arising directly or indirectly from any of the following:

- Ionising radiation or radioactive contamination from any nuclear fuel or any nuclear waste arising from burning nuclear fuel.
- The radioactive, poisonous, explosive or other dangerous properties of any explosive nuclear equipment or part of that equipment.

- Pressure waves caused by aircraft (and other flying objects) travelling at any speed.
- War, invasion, act of foreign enemy, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), civil war, rebellion, insurrection or military or usurped power.
- Acts of terrorism.

- 4 Claims arising directly or indirectly from earthquakes, riots or civil disturbances outside Great Britain, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands, except under section G (liabilities to third parties) of this policy.

! Please note Riots or civil disturbances in Northern Ireland are excluded.

- 5 Any liability you accept under an agreement or contract, unless you would have been legally liable anyway.

Please try to avoid admitting fault at the scene of an accident – just exchange your insurance details with anyone else involved.

- 6 Any decision or action of a court which is not within the geographical limits of this policy (i.e. the United Kingdom, Channel Islands or Isle of Man) unless the proceedings are brought, or a judgement is given, in a foreign court because the car was used in that country and your insurer had agreed to cover it there.

- 7 Claims arising directly or indirectly from any car being in a place used for the take-off, landing, parking or movement of aircraft, including the associated service roads, refuelling areas, ground equipment parking areas and the parts of passenger terminals of international airports which come within the Customs examination area or any part of airport premises to which the public does not have vehicular access.

! Please note You will be covered at airports in areas where the general public are allowed, such as airport car parks and pick-up and drop-off areas.

There will be no cover under this policy if, as a result of a delay in reporting the claim, our position has been prejudiced. To report a claim you must follow the instructions under the 'How to make a claim' section on page 51.

If court proceedings are issued or a conflict of interest arises and you wish to nominate a legal representative to act for you, you may do so. The adviser must represent you in accordance with our standard conditions of appointment available on request.

If we cannot reach an agreement with the adviser over the terms of their appointment, the Law Society will be asked to nominate another legal representative and this nomination shall be binding.

e The adviser must:

- ii Keep us fully advised of all developments and provide such information as we may require.
- iii Keep us regularly advised of advisers' costs incurred.

- h You shall supply all information requested by the adviser and us.

- i You are responsible for any advisers' costs if you withdraw from the legal action without our prior consent. Any costs already paid under this insurance must be reimbursed by you.
- j You must instruct the adviser to provide us with all information that we ask for and report to us as we direct at their own cost.

2 Prospects of Success

At any time we may form the view that you do not have a more than 50% chance of winning the case and achieving a positive outcome. If so, we may decline support or any further support.

In forming this view we may consider:

- a The amount of money at stake.
- b Whether a person without legal expenses insurance would wish to pursue or defend the matter.

3 Proportionality

We will only pay advisers' costs that are proportionate to the amount of damages that you are claiming in the legal action. Advisers' costs in excess of the amount that you are able to claim from your opponent will not be covered.

4 Disputes

Any disputes between you and us in relation to our assessment of your prospects of success in the case or nomination of solicitor may, where the parties agree, be referred to an arbitrator who shall be either a solicitor or a barrister. If the parties cannot agree on their choice of arbitrator the Law Society may be asked to make a nomination. The arbitration shall be binding and carried out in accordance with the Arbitration Act. The costs of the arbitration shall be at the discretion of the arbitrator. As an alternative to the arbitration process, you may use the complaints procedure shown on page 44 of this document.

5 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

This policy is a contract between you and us. It is not our intention that the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 gives anyone else either any rights under this policy or the right to enforce any part of it.

6 Other Insurances

If any claim covered under this policy is also covered by another legal expenses policy, or would have been covered if this policy did not exist, we will only pay our share of the claim even if the other insurer refuses the claim.

Total Legal – Additional Legal Services

In this policy our aim is to provide a wide ranging insured legal service. Inevitably there are areas where it is not possible to insure legal expenses, in particular those which everybody at some time may face, but which are nevertheless often expensive and sometimes unexpected. Examples are:

- Sale of motor vehicle and challenging parking penalties.
- Divorce and child custody issues.
- Wills and probate.

To help you deal with these and other matters which may arise we are able to give you access to discounted legal services provided by us in partnership with our panel of solicitors. Our panel of solicitors are one of the country's leading law firms with expertise in all areas where assistance is likely to be required.

If you would like to make use of the service please contact 0344 701 1119 and quote "Ageas" for an initial telephone consultation which will be provided at no cost to you. Our panel of solicitors will give you a quotation for the likely cost of their representation and it will then be your decision whether you appoint them to act for you.

The Arc Legal Document Service

As part of your Legal Expenses Insurance policy, you have access to a range of free legal documents that may help you resolve a legal issue you have.

The variety of legal documents available cover disputes relating to many topics, including:

- Debt and arrears
- Holiday and travel
- Motoring issues
- Probate
- Wills

The service gives you peace of mind that if you are faced with a legal issue, you may be able to solve the dispute without having to pursue a claim.
